

Pittsburgh VETERANS DAY

Parade

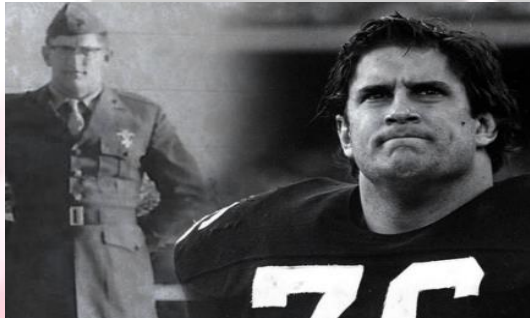

Sacrifice is meaningless unless remembered.

Presented by UPMC Health Plan

Come out and support our area's Veterans at the Pittsburgh Veterans Day Parade as Pittsburgh is home to the longest running Veterans Day Parade in the Nation and Pennsylvania is home to the 4th largest population of Veterans in the Country.

Special Recognition and Dedication to World War II Veterans
Saturday, November 11th, 10:30am

- John Banaszak to be the Grand Marshall of the parade
- National anthem and taps preformed by Plum High School Band
 - Ceremonial flyover at the beginning of the parade
- Parade to include groups representing veterans of all eras, military units, civic & youth groups, floats, businesses, and vintage vehicles

The Pittsburgh Veterans Day Parade is intended to honor individuals who served their country and is open for any Veteran to join us in the parade. If you would like to participate in the parade, please register either yourself or a group by scanning the QR code or visit: <https://pittsburghveteransparade.com/register/>
